

The Pensacola Song Contest Results Are In!

GSC was proud to sponsor the Pensacola Beach Songwriters Festival Song Contest for the 3rd year in support of Reneda Cross and her efforts to encourage songwriters.

This amazing event, which features 90 Hit Songwriters in the round, is open to songwriters worldwide; however, GSC members keep winning! GSC Member Debbie Pascarella won the contest in year one with her song "I Listen to My Bad Girl."

Our GSC team was so proud to see Debbie perform her song at this year's event. GSC Member Kathie Edison won year two and was also in attendance this year and had her song performed. Many of our GSC members did really well in this year's contest, but GSC newcomer Jeromy Darling walked away with the first place honors!

Jeromy just just joined GSC a few weeks ago and we are looking forward to getting to know him better. Jeromy took advantage of the contest and now...HE WILL BE PERFORMING in Pensacola next year among the pro writers! It is an all expense paid trip!

Congratulations to Jeromy and ALL of you who placed and/or received honorable mention. This is a great item to add to your songwriting resume.
